Is This The Reason?

A few days ago we heard one good citizen jumping on another who stated that the county was too poor now to pay for roads or any other improvements, and, after listening to the talk for awhile we are convinced that the aforesaid good citizen knew what he was talking about. His argument was that Powell county people did not pay sufficient taxes on their property, giving it in to the assessor at a fraction of its real value. He cited several instances of men who owned splendid farms along the river bottoms and who value this land to the assessor—at $15 or $20 an acre, when, in fact, it was worth $100. One man he mentioned as having recently refused $20,000 for his farm which is assessed at $3,000, and another who berated the Board of Supervisors for raising the valuation of his farm from $1,800 to $2,100, when he had just refused an offer of $9,000 cash for it.

We suppose that this condition of affairs exists in every county to a greater or less extent but we are convinced that, until the taxpayers of the county pay more in proportion to the true value of their land, we will remain a poorer county, and poor to do anything but envy her more progressive neighbors.

Oil Found in Madison.

While digging post holes on his farm in the Red Lick Creek section of Madison county, Fred Lakes struck oil at a depth of about four feet. Samples of the oil shown to experts are said to be of excellent quality and several oil men went immediately to look the ground over and try and secure leases.

Horse Breaks Leg In Mud Hole

A horse belonging to George Tackett, a rag buyer of Winchester, became stuck in a mudhole a short distance from Powell's Valley church last week and in attempting to get out the animal broke one of its legs and had to be destroyed. The horse was a fairly good one, worth about $100—ten times what it would have cost to fix the mudhole.

Good For You, Judge.

Judge Shackelford's action last week in entering a rule against those persons summoned for jury service and who failed to obey the summons, is a measure that will meet with general approval. It has been customary for some of those summoned for jury service to absent themselves when it suited their convenience, but a few stiff fines will break up this practice. Those who offended this time were let off on payment of the costs but were given a lecture by Judge Shackelford on the advisability of obeying a court summons.

PRIZE SOW

A. B. Shearer, of near Hunt, this county, claims the record for a litter of pigs. A sow belonging to Mr. Shearer has found a litter of eighteen pigs, which is said to be the largest number ever known in this section of the State. The pigs are all thriving nicely. This was the sow's second litter, the first being a litter of thirteen.—Winchester Democrat.

Big Revival

A revival meeting will be held at the old M. E. church on Hardwicks creek, commencing Saturday, April 1. The meeting will be conducted by Rev. Wm. Kirk, assisted by Rev. Wm. Marcum, of Owsley county, and the full gospel will be preached. There will be some fine singing, and a regular old-fashioned revival is promised. Bros. Marcum and Kirk have only recently concluded a fine meeting in Owsley county, where several souls were saved and where a large church will be built. Everybody is invited to attend these meetings.

ANNOUNCEMENT

To the People of the Seventh Appellate District.
At the solicitation of many friends, I have concluded to become a candidate for Judge of the Court of Appeals for this (7th) Appellate District of Kentucky, subject to the action of the Republican party at the Primary Election to be held on the 3rd day of August, 1916.

In entering this race for the nomination, I am not unmindful of the fact that there are other aspirants to this great office. To be Judge of the highest court of our State is an exalted position worthy of any man's ambition. No man has the right to object to any other candidate competing for that honor. The office belongs to the people and they will choose that candidate who suits them best. Only one of the candidates offered will be chosen by the respective political parties.

While it is true that the Judiciary, in its true intent and purpose, rests upon an eminence high above the plane of partisan politics, still the law-makers of the State have established primary elections for the purpose of choosing the candidates for Judges of all the Courts within the Commonwealth as well as those offices of more or less political nature, and we must conform to the law as we find it.

The people in the state and nation look to their courts for protection in their lives, liberties and property rights. The highest courts bring in review their rights and stand as a bulwark to the citizen when his constitutional or legal rights are invaded.

Hence the people do, with care, select men of judicial temperament for the Judiciary, and it is one of the glories of the American Commonwealth, and of the National Union, that the courts, taken as a whole, are above reproach or suspicion.

The Seventh Appellate District is a large and important District, full of business and full of development. A large volume of legal business goes from this District to the Court of Appeals at every term. Many important matters involving life, liberty and property, must be settled by this court.

I promise you that, if elected to this great office, it shall be my sole purpose and desire to do the right, as I see the right, to the end that all persons, insofar as in my power lies, shall have full and ample justice regardless of their political affiliations, religious opinions, or stations in life.

I sincerely hope that you may kindly lend me a helping hand, thus making sure my success in this the greatest ambition of my life, that I may have the honor and the great pleasure of occupying a place on the bench of the highest Court of your Commonwealth.

Most Sincerely,
Your Friend,
G. W. GOURLEY.

Rev. Wm. Kirk is near Winchester this week, preaching.

Ben Hatton of Bowen was here this week attending court.

J. H. Hardwick of Winchester was here Tuesday of this week.

Jailer Martin has a house full of boarders since court commenced.

Mrs. Gifford Thomas of Hatchers creek is some better from her sick spell.

Zach Connor of Winchester was here attending court this week and mingling among his friends.

Arthur Chany and wife returned Saturday from Whick in Breathitt county where they had been visiting.

James Chaney left Sunday for Jackson where he has a position with his brother John, on the railroad.

Ben Kincaid of Clay City was here attending court this week and working in the interest of his candidacy for Sheriff.

Mrs. W. R. Catron has laid in a supply of beautiful hats for spring and wants her many friends to come and see her.

Spring sure must be coming as we saw several boys running around barefoot this week. Saw one young man with a straw hat on.

Dillard Martin of Junction City, Tenn., is here this week visiting his many friends and relatives. He is a brother of J. D. Martin of Cat Creek.

Dr. Breese, of the Old Furnace country was here this week visiting his twin daughters who are attending the college here. He left for Bloomington Ill., to visit another daughter who has been living in California but who is now touring with a theatrical company.

The court house developed several leaks during the rains this week. This is too bad as the roof was only put on two or three years ago. The writer has had sad experience with a leaky roof and knows how to sympathize with the county judge who has to look after this.

Christopher Daniel of Clay City and Miss Henrietta Benningfield of Rosslyn, surprised their many friends by getting married at Clay City last week. Miss Benningfield was attending school here up to the time she was married. She is the daughter of Mitt Benningfield of Rosslyn, and the groom the son of Day Daniel of Clay City.

The case of Day Daniel against Matt Spencer of Jackson is to be tried on Wednesday of this week. Among those here in the interest of the case are Judge G. W. Fleenor of Winchester, Hon. T. C. Johnson of Tallega, Grannis Back, Matt Spencer, A. P. Crawford, of Jackson, Mrs. Burrell Akers, A. P. Johnson, Topher Daniel and wife, and Day Daniel and wife, of Clay City.

Miss Nora West of Stanton surprised her many friends by leaving her school work at Richmond, where she was attending the Kentucky State Normal, and meeting Goodloe Spurlock of Key West, Florida, at Winchester, and marrying, Thursday. We are informed that these two had formerly been on intimate terms, and when Goodloe came here to attend the funeral of his father, they decided to marry. They will probably return to Key West, where Mr. Spurlock is a Quartermaster in the U. S. Navy. Our congratulations go to these young people.

As this goes to the paper the case of White vs. Martin et al, is being tried. The issue is: Who will retain possession of what has been known as the mountain tract of the old Gay farm near Bowen. Dave Thresher got a patent from the Commonwealth and sold it to Wm Martin for $25. It is claimed by plaintiff that the tract in dispute is worth from $1,500 to $2,000. Plaintiff claims it under an old Virginia grant issued to Samuel Yeung in 1786 and handed down through the Gay and Chenant heirs. The defendants claim that it was unclaimed land and secured a patent on it on that ground. J. D. Atkinson is the lawyer for plff. and J. Smith Hays of Winchester and A. T. Stewart of Stanton, for deft.

Later—The jury returned a verdict Wednesday afternoon in favor of Mr. White.

One of our young men made a sudden trip to Hazard last week on very urgent business while the grand jury was in session. We are informed that two young ladies of Stanton who were summoned before the grand jury, also left hurriedly for other parts till it had adjourned. As Judge Shackelford has fined other witnesses for not being present when their names were called, we trust that this will also be investigated. The law is supposed to be no respecter of persons and we trust that Judge Shackelford will show no partiality here. The writer was much gratified while attending court to see witnesses called to strict account for not being present when called, and Judge Shackelford desires it to be known from now on that every witness must be present and that they will be fined unless prevented from coming by sickness or other lawful excuse. This is a good thing, as much of the cost of conducting a session of court would be eliminated. Spread the news far and near that Judge Shackelford means business!

The heavy windstorm last week did much damage here. It partly unroofed the depot, Mr. Catron's store and

The few people in the county who are fighting the bond issue are coming down to pretty low tactics when they get to accusing some of the largest taxpayers in the county, and men who have always been free in giving of their time and money for anything for the good of the county, of opposing the pikes. Last week we heard a whisper in Stanton that the Brodhead-Garrett Co. was opposed the bond issue, and before we had opportunity to write Mr. Garrett about the matter we received a letter from him at Winchester, to the effect that the Brodhead Garrett Co. always was in favor of anything that would benefit Powell county and that they were for the bond issue as strong as possible. All the largest taxpayers in the county, the men who will have the most to pay for the pikes, are in favor of them, and it is only a few disgruntled ones, who are afraid they might have to pay a few cents more a year in taxes, that oppose them. And these few are rapidly coming to see that they are in the minority and that their views are not very widely spread and they are keeping mighty quiet about it.

Another movement to have Henry Youtsey paroled from the penitentiary at Frankfort, has been on hand for some time past, but it seems that it will have little effect. One member of the Board of Prison Commissioners will be in favor of the parole being granted, but the other two members have signified their intention of fighting it.

Youtsey has now served about sixteen years for his complicity in the killing of Governor Goebel, and as the rest of those accused of the crime are at large it does seem a pity that one man should be made the scapegoat. Previous efforts at obtaining a parole for Youtsey have been in vain, and it is probable that he will have to remain in prison for the rest of his life.

The low-down cur who inflicted two severe cuts on a mule belonging to J. B. Eaton, while the animal was tied in front of the jail at Stanton, last week, should if apprehended, be given a life sentence in the penitentiary. The animal was gashed with a knife in two places between the forelegs where the boy who had ridden it to Stanton from Clay City could not detect the injury in the dark, and the suffering caused the dumb brute was terrible. Anyone who could do such a spiteful act is surely not human and no punishment could be too severe for him.

Indoor Worker Is Handicapped

Office Men Often Pay Penalty For Indoor Grind

We can't all be devotees of the great out-of-doors, and so the office men and women too often pay the penalty of the all-day grind at the desk.

There comes in many cases the sluggishness that is bred of physical inactivity and the ailments that mark the indoor man for their own.

To say "I feel good all over" is to speak the acme of content, and when this is supplemented by a steady, healthy increase in weight after a long period of suffering, the fortunate man usually feels that he wants to share his good luck with the less fortunate "other fellow."

It is this spirit that prompts so many prominent business men in every community to endorse Tanlac. Tanlac assists nature to throw off depression and lifts place to stimulate the system, with the result that energy and vigor return.

That "tired feeling" means a good deal more than is generally realized. It is one of the symptoms of a more serious condition. It is not laziness, it is a physical ailment that needs correction before it takes a firm hold on you. The results of the Tanlac treatment are amazing.

Tanlac tends to make tired out, listless persons sturdy and of real manhood and womanhood like those old-fashioned but most sensible folks—the pioneers.

As a tonic, appetizer and invigorant, nothing has ever been discovered that will compare with Tanlac. It builds new tissues, vitalizes the blood, and acts so favorably on ailments of the stomach, liver and kidneys, and catarrhal affections of the mucous membranes.

Satisfied users of Tanlac have proven to be Tanlac's best advertisers. Men and women, from the highest to the lowest walks of life, everywhere are testifying daily to the relief Tanlac has brought them. No other remedy has won such endorsements, that can only come from superlative merits.

Tanlac is being especially introduced in Clay City at the Eaton & McGuire store, where the Tanlac man is daily explaining its merits and the results that may be expected from its use.

Tanlac may be obtained in Stanton at Hardwick & Co.; Bowen, Day & King; College Hill, Ginter Bros.; Torrent, J. Taylor Day; Irvine, Irvine Drug Co.

ATTENTION DRUGGISTS-STORE KEEPERS

An exclusive Tanlac agent is wanted in every town, village and cross road in this county. For particulars and advertising plans address Cooper Medicine Company, Dayton, Ohio.

Owing to the difficulty in getting freight shipped here the railroad company has changed the name of the station from Dundee to Slade, making it the same as the post-office. Before this a great deal of our freight was sent to Dundee in Ohio county, and both the railroad company and the merchants were put to a lot of bother. There are several other places on the line where two names are used—one for the post-office and the other by the railroad, and it would be a convenience to have them all changed.
